Planning the perfect party

There's no better way to have fun than by throwing a party. Everyone loves to spend time with their friends and have fun in a relaxed atmosphere. However, as anyone who has ever thrown a party will know, a lot of hard work goes into hosting a party, and it is not always easy to make sure everyone has a good time. The following tips will help you to plan the perfect party.

- Parties need to be planned carefully. Make sure you allow yourself plenty of time to prepare for your party. Make a list of everything you need to do and be organised, because things can get very busy as the day of your party gets closer.
- If you are serving food at your party, choose foods which go together. You could pick a theme for your party and make food which fits that theme; for example, Mexican or Chinese. Make sure you don't serve foods which are going to make a mess. Remember – you are the one who will have to clean it up the next day!

- Written invitations are a great idea, especially if you can make them fun or different. Don't forget to put important information like the time, date and address on your invitations. Tell your guests when the party starts and when it will end. Also, let them know if they should wear a certain type of clothes (e.g. fancy dress).
- You can use decorations, lighting and music to create the perfect party atmosphere. Choose your favourite music and play it in the background as your guests arrive. It is a good idea to remove your television if it is in the party area. You can also replace some of your lightbulbs with coloured lamps.

Just follow these simple steps and you are sure to have a fantastic party that everyone will enjoy! Good luck!

- 1 You should prepare for the party in advance.
- 2 You should serve foods with a mixture of themes.
- 3 You should clean up any mess straight away.
- 4 You need to let your guests know when the party will finish.
- 5 You should not play music until all your guests have arrived.
- 6 You should let your guests watch TV.

The safe way to shop online

The Internet is a great place to shop. At the click of a mouse, you can buy anything from an airline ticket to a second-hand book. You can send gifts to friends on the other side of the world or find rare antique items without even leaving the comfort of your own home. However, many people feel uncomfortable shopping online because they are not sure how safe it is to use their credit cards on the World Wide Web. The following tips will make sure that you have a safe, secure shopping experience every time you shop on the Internet.

- Buy products from companies you know. Anyone can set up an online store. If you have never heard of a company, it may not be wise to do business with them. Ask friends which stores they shop from online. They are sure to tell you who to use and who to avoid!

- Keep your passwords private! Use your imagination when you create a password to use on the Internet. It is a good idea to use a combination of numbers, letters and symbols. Don't use your birthday or your nickname, as these are too obvious. When you have decided on your password, don't give it to anyone.
- Keep a record. Make sure that you always print off copies of any order you make online. You should keep a copy of your order confirmation number as well as all other details of each purchase you make.
- Don't give out personal information. If you are asked for your home address, telephone number or e-mail address, make sure you know who is asking for it and what they are going to use it for. If you have children, warn them not to give out these details online.

Just follow these simple steps and you are sure to make the most of your cyber-shopping experience! Good luck!

- 1 Any company can choose to open an online store.
- 2 You should only buy products from your friends online.
- 3 You should only use letters in your password.
- 4 You should not use your nickname as a password.
- 5 You should keep copies of the orders you make online.
- 6 You should not tell your children your personal details.

H Suggested Answer

Dear James,

Thanks for your recent letter. I'm sorry to hear that you're having trouble losing weight. I'm writing because I have a few suggestions that might help you.

First of all, you could try leaving the car at home and walking to work. This would be good exercise and you'd also burn off calories. Also, I suggest that you eat plenty of fruit and vegetables and less junk food. In addition, you could join a fitness club or even take up a sport. In this way you'd lose weight and also feel much healthier.

Well, I hope that my advice helps you. Write back soon and tell me if these ideas work. I'm sure they will!

Love
Katie

H Suggested Answer

Dear Ms Marsaud,

I am writing to apply for the position of chef which I saw advertised in Tuesday's edition of the Daily Star.

I am a twenty-five year old chef. I speak fluent French. At the moment, I am working at a small French restaurant in Oxford. Before that I worked as a chef at the Ritz Hotel. I worked there for three years. I am creative and energetic, as well as reliable.

I hope that you will consider me for the position. I am able to attend an interview at any time.

Yours sincerely,
Paul Smith

An Exciting Adventure

I had the most exciting experience of my life last month when I went on a picnic with my friends, Tom and Ann.

When we got into the car everything seemed to be perfect, but soon the car broke down. Luckily, Tom fixed it and we set off again. At the beginning of the journey the weather was good, but then it started to rain heavily. When we arrived at the woods, it stopped raining but we realised that we had forgotten a blanket. We sat on the wet grass. Then, while we were having a picnic near the river we saw a bear. We were terrified. Fortunately, the bear didn't see us. As soon as the bear went away we breathed a sigh of relief.

We all went home exhausted. It was an exciting adventure I will never forget.

Dear Sarah,

I have just got back from a holiday with my friends in Spain. It was a great place and we had a really fantastic time.

We stayed in a beautiful hotel near the sea. We tried the local food. It was delicious. We visited museums and saw some interesting exhibits. We went swimming and sailing too. We had a picnic on the beach and we made some friends. We also bought lots of souvenirs and took lots of photos.

It was a relaxing holiday and I had the time of my life. I recommend going to Spain.

Love,

Peter

Skiing is a popular activity with lots of people. However, there are advantages and disadvantages to consider.

There are many advantages to skiing. To start with, it is fun. It is an exciting activity and a great form of exercise. In addition, it helps you keep fit while being in the fresh air. It makes you feel good and you also meet people.

On the other hand, there are disadvantages. To begin with, you need expensive equipment and you can only ski during the winter. Also, you have to go to a ski resort which can be far away. It can also be dangerous if you fall.

On the whole, I believe that although skiing is expensive and dangerous it is a unique experience.

Marco's is a traditional Italian restaurant located on Brown Street in the city centre.

It offers a large variety of tasty food. The menu includes traditional pasta and the servings are huge. The service is fast and the staff are polite and friendly. The decor is modern and the interior is very nice with lots of soft lights and colourful plants. The music is soft and relaxing and the atmosphere is romantic.

Also, the prices are reasonable. I would recommend it because it offers great food in a relaxing atmosphere and good value for money.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to complain about a jacket and a jumper which I bought from your catalogue last week.

Unfortunately, when the order arrived I realised that the jumper had a hole in it. Also, when I tried on the jacket I noticed that it had a button missing and was not the size I had asked for.

I am returning the clothing and I would appreciate a full refund. I look forward to your reply.

Dear Clare,

How are you? Thank you for your e-mail. I'm writing to tell you about a great film I saw last week at the cinema.

The film was called Troy and it was an action adventure film. Brad Pitt played Achilles who was a great hero. Diane Kruger played Helen of Troy. Paris, a prince of Troy, falls in love with Helen and takes her to Troy. The Greeks sail to Troy and start a war. I liked the action scenes, the brilliant acting and the great costumes.

Troy is a fantastic film and fun to watch. Don't miss the chance to see it. Write soon and tell me what you think of it.

Yours,

Henry

Football is a very popular sport which lots of people play, but there are pros and cons to consider.

There are many advantages. Firstly, it keeps you healthy. It is an outdoor activity played in the fresh air and you can have fun with your friends. What is more, it helps to encourage team spirit. Also it offers pleasure to people when they watch it on TV. It is also cheap and you don't need much equipment to play.

On the other hand, there are certain disadvantages. It is sometimes dangerous, so you can hurt yourself badly. In addition, there is often violence at football matches.

All in all, football is good fun and good exercise, although sometimes it is dangerous.

Prague is one of the most exciting cities in Eastern Europe. The best times to visit are in spring, summer or early autumn. If you can visit Prague during the world famous Spring Festival, you will be sure to have the time of your life. Avoid the winters, though, as the weather can be quite cold.

The best way to get around Prague is by tram or bus, or on one of the city's three metro lines. Public transport is quite cheap and very efficient.

Anyone who comes to Prague is sure to fall in love with the city. It has a fascinating history and a large number of amazing buildings. Visit Prague Castle, which was once the home of Czech kings and princes, but is now one of the president's homes. Take a walk to the Old Town Square across Charles Bridge, which Charles IV founded in 1357. The bridge is decorated with thirty sculptures and has three bridge towers and sixteen pillars.

As well as beautiful churches and monuments, Prague also has impressive modern buildings, such as the TV Tower in Zizkov, which is the tallest building in the city. It is open to the public and has a restaurant and a terrace with a view of the whole city.

Prague's art galleries contain works of art from all over Europe and the city is also a European centre for jazz and alternative rock. If classical music is more to your taste, why not spend an evening in one of Prague's concert halls. The city also has many theatres, museums and dance clubs, so whatever your taste, you are sure to be entertained during your stay.

Don't miss the chance to visit one of the most enchanting cities in the world. Once you are there, you will never want to leave.

◆ Test 2A/2B – Listening

A: ... our next guest on today's show is Dr Harris who is currently head of a new environmental group called Earth Cleaners. Dr Harris, I think you created your group last month. Would you like to tell our listeners who you are and what you do exactly?

B: Yes. Well, I have always been interested in forming a group like this but in fact it was a few of my students who actually created the group. Then they came to me and asked me to be their leader.

A: Right! And why exactly did they decide to create another environmental group? There are quite a lot of groups around already.

B: That's true and some of the students are already members of bigger groups. I think the students felt that there was a need for a group that would do things for the local environment. There are quite a few problems in our town that need to be worked on in fact.

A: So what kind of problems are there in the town?

B: Firstly, there is a lot of rubbish in the streets and the local beach has become very dirty too. So, the students felt that they should do something. Then there is the problem of wildlife. A lot of trees have been cut down in the area over the last few years and this is putting some of the local animal species in danger of losing their homes or even becoming extinct. There are many birds that need the trees to live, for example.

A: Have you managed to do anything so far?

B: Yes indeed! We cleaned up the beach last week. A lot of people came to help and we picked up plastic bags and bottles as well as other rubbish. Now the beach is clean and people feel more comfortable about going swimming there. We've also collected money for new rubbish bins in town and we are going to the schools to tell children how important it is to throw their rubbish in the bins and not on the street. And I am very happy to say that next week we are going to start a recycling campaign.

A: Looks as if you've been very busy then.

B: Yes, we have but there is still a lot of work to do, and that is why we are looking for more people to help.

A: So what are you planning to do in the future?

B: As I said we are starting a recycling campaign but we have also decided to do as much as we can to help animals in the area. Firstly we want to build a home for dogs and cats because there are a lot of them in the streets at the moment. We'll need to collect a lot of money for this. Then we want to plant some trees in the town centre which will create homes for birds.

A: And how are you going to do this?

B: Next week the town is holding its annual festival and we are going to go out on the streets and ask people for money and I am sure that people will help.

A: I'm sure our listeners will help and I wish you luck with the great work you are doing.

◆ Test 3A/3B – Listening

A: What's that you're reading, Sue?

B: It's an invitation to a party.

A: A party? Great! Whose party is it?

B: It's Sarah Peters'. You remember her from my office, don't you?

A: Sarah Peters? Yes, I think so. Is it her birthday or something?

B: I don't know. The invitation just says that she's having a garden party.

A: A garden party? That should be fun, as long as the weather's good.

B: Well, it should be pretty warm. The party's in July.

A: July? It's not on the 2nd is it? I've got a meeting to go to then.

B: No, don't worry. It's on Saturday the 4th. You're not busy then, are you?

A: No, the 4th is fine. Where is it?

- B: It's in Millfield Road.
A: Oh yes? That's where Mike lives. His house is number 39.
B: Really? Well, he must live right next door to Sarah, then. Her house is number 37.
A: Great! Maybe Mike will be at the party!
B: You never know.
A: That would be good. What time does it start?
B: At 4 o'clock in the afternoon. I think it will be great fun. Shall we go?
A: Well, I expect so, but we don't have to decide now, do we?
B: Well, yes, we do, actually. Sarah wants everyone to RSVP by the 28th of June, and that's this Friday.
A: Is it really the 28th this Friday? Where has this month gone?
B: I don't know. Time flies. Now, are we going to this party or not?

- A: If you like sports, you'll be happy to hear that a new sports club has just opened right in the centre of town and we decided to send our sports correspondent, Judy Jay, to see what it's like. Judy, you've been to the sports club. Tell us what you think.
B: Well, firstly I'd like to say that I am delighted to see a new sports club in town. I think that everyone will agree that the town needed one. It's great.
A: So what kind of sports can you do there?
B: It's quite a big club so you can do many sports. I think the best thing about this club is that there is a very large indoor swimming pool. There are swimming classes every evening except Sundays and you can even learn scuba diving.
A: Wow, that's fantastic. What else is there?
B: Lots of things. There are two tennis courts, a basketball court, and a volleyball court.
A: Can you learn how to box? I've always wanted to box.
B: No, I am afraid not Jim. There's no boxing ring.
A: How about bowling or snooker?
B: Well, yes there is a bowling alley, but you can't play snooker. But you know there is a snooker club in town already.
A: Oh really, I didn't know that. So, how about the details? Do you have to be a member and how much does it cost?
B: Yes, you must be a member to use the sports club. It costs £45 a month for adults and £25 for children. However you can use the swimming pool without being a member.
A: Oh! That's good. And is the club open everyday?
B: Yes in fact it's open Friday to Saturday from 8 am to 11 pm and Sunday from 10 am to 6 pm.
A: Great! I'm sure it will be a busy place and thank you for telling us about it.
 It's coming up to ten o'clock now so let's go to the news desk...

- A: Hey, Mark. What are you up to?
B: Oh, hi, Steve. I'm just making a few plans for our school film project.
A: Good idea. We really need to get to work on that. What can I do to help?
B: Well, I'm trying to decide who would be best in front of the camera. Any ideas?
A: Actually, yeah. We've got Katie in our group and she's a really good actress. She's pretty confident and funny, too. I think she'd be great.
B: OK. Thanks. We need another star, though. Can you think of anyone else?
A: Well, I suppose we could ask Gary. He was quite good in the school play.
B: No, I've already asked him, but he says he doesn't want to be in a group. He prefers working alone, so he's doing his own project.
A: Oh right. That's a shame. What about Lee? He's really outgoing. Did you see him when he was the quizmaster for the class quiz? I bet he'd be a good actor.
B: I agree, but he says he wants to be the cameraman. He's got a video camera and he uses it all the time, so he should be pretty good.
A: Well, alright then. Why don't you do it?
B: Me? You must be joking!
A: No, I think you'd be great! Go on, Mark!
B: Oh, OK. And what are you going to do, Steve? We still need a makeup artist, you know!
A: Ha ha! No, I think I'd make a good director. I'm organised and I'm good at giving people orders.
B: Yeah, you're right there. But who's going to be the make-up artist?
A: Have you asked Lucy?
B: Lucy who?
A: You know. Lucy from our Maths class. She's really artistic. I bet she'd be great at making people up.
B: That's a good idea. I'll talk to her this afternoon. We've got English together. Well, I think that's everything.
A: Great! Now, what is the film project actually going to be?
B: Good question. I don't suppose you've got any ideas about that, have you? ... (fade) ...

... and as usual on a Thursday morning at this time we take a look at one of the world's capitals. Today we'll be heading to Lisbon, a city almost 20 centuries old that offers its visitors a variety of things to see and do. Lisbon is located on seven hills and on the Tagus River making it a very impressive sight. Its position on the Atlantic coast also means that Lisbon has a pleasant temperature during the winter and cool summers.

Lisbon is quite big and about 600,000 people live there but for the tourist everything of interest is within walking distance of the city centre. There are lots of pleasant street cafés and gardens and beautiful old houses everywhere in Lisbon. So wherever you go there are things to see.

The Alfama is a very old part of Lisbon where you can find lots of very old buildings in tiny streets, and of course the famous Castelo de Sao Jorge right at the top of the hill overlooking the town. The Baixa area is nearby and is a bit different; it has larger streets and lots of modern shops. In the evenings take a walk through the streets of the Bairro Alto area and you will find a lot of cafés, restaurants, and music bars. It is very nice to take the tram but the best way to get around in Lisbon is to take the Metro. You can visit Lisbon anytime of year but the best times are from April to June and September to October.
